Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Every day American children are born with a genetic defect that disrupts normal breathing and digestion and leads to early death. There is presently no cure or long-term control for cystic fibrosis, only the certainty that half its victims will not live beyond their teenage years; and,

WHEREAS, An estimated ten million people--one in twenty Americans--are unknowing, symptom-free carriers of the cystic fibrosis gene, and any marriage between two carriers can produce children who have cystic fibrosis; and,

WHEREAS, Those young people who have defied the odds and survived into their twenties and thirties face the problems of finding jobs, meeting the high cost of care, and planning for daily life in society; and,

WHEREAS, The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Nation's only voluntary health association committed to finding a cure or control for this tragic illness, is sponsoring a nationwide public awareness campaign to generate support for these programs and to educate citizens about cystic fibrosis; and,

WHEREAS, As a tribute to the Foundation and to all those who have worked so diligently in support of its mission, and in recognition of the importance of promoting public understanding and awareness of cystic fibrosis:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 20 through 26, 1981, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
